Film Night Presents

FROM DIRECTOR KEVIN SORBO

LET THERE BE LIGHT

Nativity Center: April 5, 7:00 PM

LET THERE BE LIGHT tells a story about an alcoholic atheist, Sol Harkins, mourning his dead son. Bitter and angry with God, Sol enjoys writing books mocking belief in God, especially Christianity. However, at a party for his new book, Sol becomes very drunk and, driving home, crashes his fancy car. Sol has a near-death experience where he sees his son alive and happy. His son repeatedly tells him, "Let there be light." The experience eventually causes Sol to reconsider what he believes and how he acts. After a unique, risky beginning, LET THERE BE LIGHT gets better and better as the story unfolds. Kevin Sorbo delivers another charismatic performance as the troubled atheist. Kevin's real-life wife, Sam, who had her own successful acting career going before working with Kevin on HERCULES, is a revelation as the atheist's ex-wife. They have a natural onscreen chemistry. Best of all, LET THERE BE LIGHT ends up being an emotionally powerful, insightful, inspiring drama showing moviegoers that Jesus Christ enlightens all people and brings us abundant life and joy, even in the midst of death.
